

THE LITTLE GIRL

CHARACTERS

01

KAZIA- A little innocent girl.

02

KAZIA'S FATHER – A very strict and workaholic person.

03

KAZIA'S GRANDMOTHER – A sweet and kind lady who loves Kazia a lot.

04

KAZIA'S MOTHER- Has a very little description in the story, not that affectionate towards her daughter.

05

MAID 'ALICE' – Takes care of Kazia in her mother's absence.

FLOW OF THE STORY

Kazia is scared of her father.

Her father is a very strict man.

She and her grandmother are very dear to each other.

She tries to express her feelings for her father.

By mistake she ruins the important documents of her father.

She is punished by her father without mercy.

She believes that her neighbor Mr. Macdonald, is a better father and loves his children just as much.

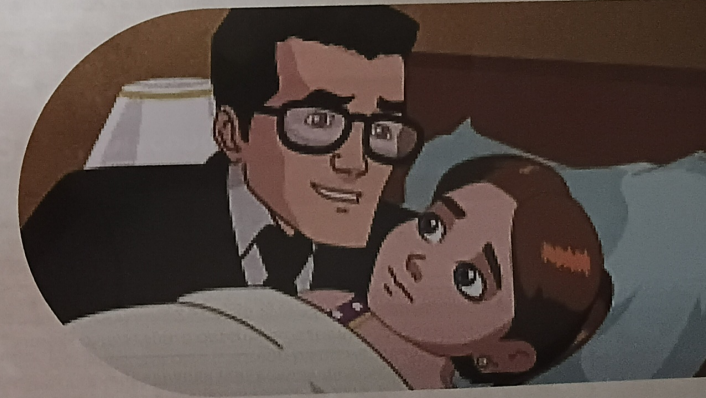

Kazia's mother gets admitted in the hospital for some reasons, and her grandma also leaves Kazia.

Kazia's been left at home with the maid and her father.

Maid Alice have to leave as well in a little while.

She is taken care of by her father, who provides warmth when Kazia becomes alarmed in a dream.

Kazia gets to know her father is also a good man.

CONCLUSION

"The Little Girl" is a short story written by Katherine Mansfield about a young girl named Kezia and her relationship with her domineering father. Mansfield explores the theme of family relationships and the impact of a father's behavior on his daughter's perception of him. Kezia's fear of her father's strictness and his casual goodbye kiss highlights the emotional distance between them. However, as the story progresses, Kezia begins to understand her father's behavior and develops a sense of compassion towards him. The story highlights the importance of communication and understanding in family relationships. Overall, The Little Girl is a poignant and insightful story that explores the complexities of family dynamics.