

Key Points

In the Kingdom of Fools

Author:- A.K. Ramanujan

Major Characters

King

Fool and gullible
Gave foolish order and ideas
Unable to provide fair justice
No sense of judgement about the people
Responsible for his own death

Minister

Foolish
Unable to give sane advice
Responsible for his own death

Guru

A man of wit and wisdom
Could foresee the events
Visualised his disciple's trouble
Made things normal in the kingdom of fools.

Disciple

Simple
Greedy
Deep faith in guru and his power

Minor Characters

RICH MERCHANT, BRICK LAYER, DANCING GIRL, GOLD SMITH, RICH MERCHANT'S SON

Strange things happening in kingdom of fools-
People used to work during nights and sleep during days.
Even animals stayed awake during night.
Everything was cheap and cost the same.
Anything and everything could be brought for a 'Dudu'.

❧ Trial scene ❧

- The merchant was tried because the burglar died when the wall of the merchant's house fell on him.
- The bricklayer was tried because he was the one who built the wall so weak.
- The dancing girl was tried because she distracted the bricklayer by walking up and down the road with jingling anklets.
- The goldsmith was tried because he did not complete the jewellery orders given by the dancing girl.
- The merchant was tried again because the goldsmith could not work on the dancing girl's orders as he was completely occupied with the jewellery order of the merchant's father.
- As the merchant's father was dead, the merchant was the one to be punished.
- Merchant was too thin to be killed by the stake, so fat disciple was chosen for the death sentence.

❧ Summary ❧

- The king and his minister were idiots.
- Made weird rules.
- People slept during the day and worked at night.
- One day a guru and his disciple came to the kingdom.
- Surprised to see this strange scene.
- Can buy anything for a single duddu.
- Guru left but the disciple remained there.
- Crime took place; accusation was shifted to one person to another.
- Rich merchant was ordered to death by the king.
But he was too thin to fit the stake made for punishment.
- King ordered to find a fat man for the execution.
- Disciple who had turned fat was picked for the punishment.
- Guru was able to sense the trouble of his disciple and reached to the kingdom
- Guru befooled both the king and his minister
- Both the king and minister agreed to die and died ultimately.

