

CharactersKey Points*Mahendra
(Junior supervisor)

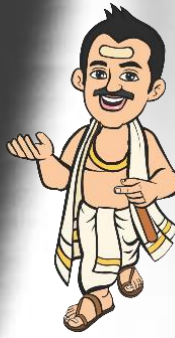

- An unmarried, disciplined and simple man
- Fond of his asset (Iswaran)
- Patient and good listener
- Rational man Who did not believe in ghosts or spirits
- Strong faith in Ishwaran's words
- A devoted worker and a kind hearted master

Iswaran
(Mahendra's cook)

- Fond of reading popular Tamil thrillers
- Master in storytelling
 1. Vivid imagination
 2. Good oratorical skills
 3. Maintains interest of the listener
- Purposely narrates the story in installments
- Television in Mahendra's life
- Funny creative and innovative

Story is narrated to Ganesh by Mahendra

- ❖ Mahendra a supervisor in firm; always had Iswaran (cook) with him
- ❖ Iswaran - a very good caretaker of Mahendra - does all the household duties with due care
- ❖ Iswaran - a good source of entertainment for Mahendra
- ❖ Mahendra listens very patiently like a child without finding loopholes- believes every part of the story

Iswaran narrates two stories

STORY 1- About a Tusker

STORY 2- Spirits of the Ancestors

Elephant carries a truckload of timber

Got mad and no mahout could control it

Entered the school ground and broke the wall

Children and teacher ran here and there

Ishwaran paralyzed the elephant by hitting him with a cane

As a small boy he knew the secret to paralyze anyone

Linked the auspicious full-moon night to the story of a female ghost.

Mahendra rebuked him for baseless story

One night Mahendra heard a low moan and Saw a cloudy figure

Mahindra was affected

Experienced the presence of ghost- could not sleep properly

Left the haunted place the very next day

Theme-1

Surprising narrative yet plausible

Theme-2

One must not let oneself be influenced