

- Shehnai replaced pungi which had a shrill unpleasant sound.
- Ustad Bismillah Khan was a Shehnai Maestro.
- He used to sing 'Chaita' in Bihariji temple and practicing shehnai in Vishnu temple & Mangala Maiya temple of Varanasi.
- He got his break on 15th August, 1947 from Red Fort in presence of Pandit Nehru.
- He also gave music in two movies 'Gunj Uthi shehnai' and 'Samadhi Alanna'.
- He gave many memorable performances both in India and abroad.
- In 2001, Ustad Bismillah Khan was awarded India's highest civilian award, the Bharat Ratna.